(365) DAYS OF DENISON

May 16, 2010- May 15, 2011

"The coolest yearbook of the year." ★★★★★ -Big Red, Denison U.

This is a story of a calendar year at Denison. The academic year on a hill in Granville, Ohio, began with the first-year induction ceremony of the Class of 2014 on August 26, 2010 and ended with the graduation of Denison University's Class of 2011 on May 15, 2011. During the summer before, school days during, and breaks in between, Denison students experienced the highs and lows of classwork, friendships, activities, finals, community service, leadership, and the changing seasons. Like the story of boy meets girl in "(500) Days of Summer," this story consists of excitement, expectations, disappointments, achievements, challenges, and changes.

This is the story of the year.

DENISON UNIVERSITY 2010-2011 in association with JOSTENS INC. and ADYTUM YEARBOOK PRODUCTIONS presents:

"(365) DAYS OF DENISON"

Designed and Written by ADYTUM STAFF. Starring ALL DENISON STUDENTS.

Filmed in Granville, Ohio.

Director's Note

While piecing together this yearbook, I had a chance to reflect on my senior year at Denison University and many of the aspects of campus life that have made the past four years remarkable. The theme (365) Days of Denison, inspired by design styles of the film "(500) Days of Summer", provided the opportunity to look at all of the specific days that constituted the unique 2010-2011 school year. These days included the flash mob on A-quad on April 15, the flag pole rally celebrating the Men's Swimming and Diving first-ever NCAA National Championship (upsetting Kenyon's 31-year winning streak) on April 1, the two ice days on February 1 and 2, and the graduation of the Class of 2011 on May 15. Like editing a film, some great clips had to be left out of the yearbook due to page and photo constraints, but I hope that it captures important frames of students, staff, faculty, and various organizations that have made these 365 days vibrant and memorable.

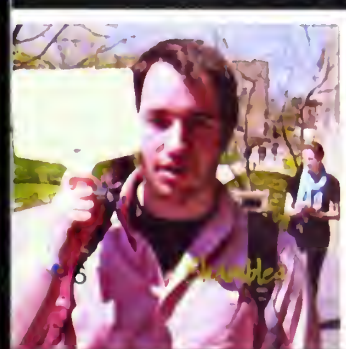

I would like to extend my thanks and appreciation to several people that have made production of the yearbook possible: (1) Yearbook Advisor, Ms. Natalie Pariano, for her positive attitude, sense of humor, and extensive guidance during the past three years (2) Denison's Jostens Representative, Mr. Robin Fritts, for being so knowledgeable, reliable, and resourceful (3) Mr. James Hale in the University Communications Office for sharing his expertise and wonderful photos with the yearbook staff (4) Mr. Craig Hicks in Sports Information for providing excellent sports photos (5) Bill Cost, for taking senior photos annually (6) my first semester co-editor and close friend, Colleen Henegan, for her help with developing the theme, working on communication and advertising, and planning our first meetings, and (7) the yearbook staff: Katie Connell, Stephanie Fois, Danny Persia, and Joe Winegardner, for their creative ideas, designs, and help with Senior Picture Days and the Yearbook Yard Sale.

Now, without further ado, I invite you to sit back, relax, and enjoy the feature presentation.

-Emily Ernes

"I mourn the loss of thousands of precious lives, but I will not rejoice in the death of one, not even an enemy. Returning hate for hate multiplies hate, adding deeper darkness to a night already devoid of stars. Darkness cannot drive out darkness: only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate: only love can do that."

Congratulations on your wonderful accomplishments at Denison! We loved seeing you develop into a fabulous actress and vocalist!

Such happy memories: An entire song solo fall of freshman year, Alpha Chi Omega, snowed in spring break 2008, outdoor ETC performances, Vail series events, Whits, My Tie Party, Easton, Steve Carrell as well as all the laughs from Burpee's, Kevin W. every week, Academy Awards gatherings, D.I.T.A. One Acts (your directing debut!), Chamber Singers, You as Yamba, Spring Formals, The Katherine Creation: The Complete Works of Shakespeare (abridged), Title Roles in Venus & Iolanthe, living with Sophia, loving every change of season at Denison, being a Little/being a Big, spring break in Florida after a "detour", cast parties, seeing so many awesome senior recitals (especially yours!)
